First Communion

We had our First Communion Mass earlier (or yesterday). And so its congratulations to Samuel, Yehan, Daniel, Ruby, Gabriel, Jeshan, Olivia, Luka, Pablo, Sarina, Sebastian and Diego.

Sheila's lunch-time soup

Sheila will be doing a one-off soup lunch on Friday, May 19. After that she is in hospital having her knee done, and it will be some time before she can start again. (I wish they would do something about my knee)! I don't suppose anyone wants to take over temporarily?

Don't be confused.

The gathering of the Rome group, originally scheduled for today, has been postponed because some families are away. We shall re-arrange a new date, before the summer break.

Your offering: May 7

1st: £ 317. 39

2nd: £455. 67 (Clergy Training Fund)

Thank you

Easter Asperges

Priest

Almighty Father, from the side of the dying Christ flowed the living water of baptism. In that water we have died with him to sin, and risen with him to newness of life. Bless this water. May it remind us of our baptism. May it renew its power within us.

Congregation

May we, your priestly people, be so strengthened by our risen Lord, following his way and defending his truth, that we may share his life for ever.

Priest

Let us call on the name of Jesus

Congregation

Come upon us, O risen Lord, and call us back to life. Forgive our failure, Strengthen our resolution. Renew us and refresh us that we may be the new wine of your kingdom.

Weekday Mass

There is no Mass here on Wednesday morning.

Rome leaders

Don't forget that we are meeting at 5pm on Tuesday. You should have had several emails from me.
